If you have any difficulty locating your local center, contact your state unemployment agency for assistance. In some cases, people who were fired, suspended or asked to take a leave of absence don't qualify for unemployment. If you fail to answer the questions correctly — or don't consent to this process — you will most likely be asked to provide the agency with documents that verify your identity. Step 4: File Your Claim Once you confirm your eligibility, it's time to file your claim. Just go into your "Printers and scanners" menu in Settings and select the option to add a new printer or scanner. You can quickly compress pdf files using this tool by clicking on the "File" menu and then selecting "Export." From there, choose "Quartz Filter" and select the "Reduce File Size" option. While you may be breathing an initial sigh of relief once your initial claim is processed, be sure to maintain your eligibility status by continuing your job search as directed. Step 6: File Your Weekly Payment Request and Keep Up the Job Search Once you start receiving unemployment benefits, you have to file weekly or biweekly (varies by state) payment requests online to be paid — no exceptions. The online process isn't just helpful for pandemic safety reasons. By the end of April, a staggering 30 million Americans had filed for unemployment benefits. No one has access to your files and privacy is 100% guaranteed. All platforms supported Smallpdf.com is browser-based and works for all platforms. In most cases, you will file a claim with the state where you most recently worked, but if you recently relocated from another state, that may not be the case. Although this rule may vary by state at times due to special circumstances (like a global pandemic), the general rule of thumb is that you're expected to pursue work leads every week and report your work search efforts in your weekly claim. Do you have COVID-19-specific questions about unemployment benefits and stimulus checks? Next, select "Use an existing port," choose Microsoft from the list of manufacturers, and select "Microsoft Print to PDF" in the printers list. Finally, keep in mind that unemployment benefits are taxable, so it's generally wise to choose to have taxes withheld from each payment when you first open your claim. Step 5: Collect Your Unemployment Benefits Most claims are processed within two to three calendar weeks or 10 business days, although delays could occur during times of high claim volumes. Moreover, if you willingly quit your job, are an independent contractor or otherwise self-employed, or can't go back to work for health or other reasons, you might not qualify. (Exceptions are currently in place to qualify independent contractors and the self-employed, but those rules expire at the end of 2020.) Photo Courtesy: Stefan Wermuth/Bloomberg/Getty Images Each state has different compliance requirements with respect to minimum wages and working hours, so we recommend consulting your state's unemployment agency for details. Long story short, where you're currently residing might not be the state that will pay you unemployment benefits if you haven't lived there long. These state-run agencies give people access to job listings and career training resources, and registration is mandatory to receive your unemployment insurance benefits. Without a doubt, the ongoing pandemic throws a bit of a wrench into the process of actively seeking work, so that component may vary from state to state and could change at any time. Since those early days of chaos, most states have adapted and made improvements to handle all the claims. Once you've set this option as a printer, you can use it to save pdf files as newer, smaller files.
